THE JAMESTOWN MAGAZINE.

A new magazine has been established in Norfolk, Va., whose special province is to cover the features of general interest pertaining to the Jamestown Exposition. It is called the Jamestown Magazine and appears with the sanction of the authorities as the official periodical of the Exposition. The new magazine is handsomely illustrated with Exposition views and contains much of interest pertaining to Exposition matters. Its purpose is to faithfully record the progress and incidents of the Jamestown Exposition and for this reason it will be a useful magazine to keep on file.

A special feature of the magazine will be the excellence of its illustrations. Everything of interest connected with the Exposition will be photographed and shown in some issue of the magazine. Accompanying these pictures will be descriptive articles by well known writers, every subject of interest to Exposition people and visitors will be covered.
It will appear monthly hereafter until the close of the Exposition and may be made a permanent publication, its popularity and successful beginning justifying such a prediction.

CANDIDATES ATTRACT AT- TENTION.

No two men in West Virginia have attracted outside attention and more highly favorable comment recently than George C. Sturgiss and W. P. Hubbard. Their candidacies for Congress are being watched in other States and some very nice things are being said of these gentlemen as evidenced by the following from the Gazette-Times, of Pittsburg:

"Mr. Sturgiss is a commanding figure in the state, has had large experience in statecraft, and is amply equipped for a congressional career. With such men as Hubbard and Sturgiss in the house of representatives West Virginia will take a prominent part in its deliberations.
They bore the party banner as candidates in the lean years of Republicanism, with no hope of victory.
Now that certain success is sequential to a nomination, the honors conferred on them are nothing more than their just dues."

McKINNEY AND REGISTER.

Owen McKinney addressing himself to a representative of the Wheeling Telegraph compliments that paper as follows, thus talking serious issue with the Wheeling Register, which has been busily engaged several weeks in an attempt to convince the public that the Telegraph has no Democracy:

"I wish to compliment you on the bright, newsy paper you're getting out these days. It seems to have the right ring and is deserving of the well merited success it is achieving. The Democratic party has an able ally in your newspaper, and you are cordially welcomed. You are doing good work for the cause and you have my best wishes for prosperity."

It will be interesting to read what the Register will now have to say of Mr. McKinney and his opinion in this respect.

Since not more than eleven thousand dollars is to be spent on water works improvements this year, it is but proper that those sections of the city that have for such a long time had unfair treatment in the matter of distribution and service, should be the beneficiaries. They have been paying taxes and water rents right along, though they received but little water service. They have paid thrice, yea, many times more than the value of the service they got, and it is not right to longer neglect them. They have as much right to have day service as any other section and certainly more right than some, who, in addition to service, want a stored supply to use in emergencies. Should the council not make the expenditures in a manner that will guarantee them better service, they should refuse to pay for a service they fail to get and institute such proceedings as will compel the city to give them the service they are entitled to.

Bryan says he is not particular about running for President again, but that he would do so, if certain reforms in his party succeed and prevail. Evidently, he had his mind on Tom Taggart as one of those mooted reforms necessary.
Then he might also have stopped to think a moment about the "safe and sound" who had the party in charge the last time. It is safe to say he will not run, if his running depends on any reforms to be made in the Democratic party, as that party is never guilty of reforming, however much it may pretend to do so.

Sturgiss needs but twenty votes to get the congressional nomination in the Second District and he is sure of Preston and Taylor. It now looks like it is to be a love feast at Keyser like it was at Wheeling, and that Keim will do the sort of chavilrous act Captatin Dovener did, when he so valiantly escorted Mr.
Hubbard to the front and introduced him as the next congressman from this district. Would not that act on the part of Mr. Keim be fine?
It would.

The University College of Medicine, of Richmond, Va., is a vigorous young institution which reflects credit upon Virginia and the South.
It maintains a high standard in all respects and its remarkable success is a gratifying evidence that our people approve of its determination to educate our doctors at home as well as they can be educated elsewhere.

were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M.

take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my

I recommend it in advanced stages
